

Vacancy

Grant Development Officer

located in Amsterdam, 40 hours a week

The PharmAccess Group

The PharmAccess Group is a dynamic international organization dedicated to connecting people to better healthcare in sub-Saharan Africa. Since its inception in 2001 PharmAccess has worked with the private health sector and in public private partnerships to pioneer healthcare financing and delivery mechanisms for lower income groups. These include health insurance schemes, loans to health SMEs, clinical quality standards and, most recently, mobile payments for health. Capitalizing on the mobile technology revolution in Africa, the PharmAccess Group has developed a mobile health wallet that connects everyone with a mobile phone to entitlements for healthcare, which can be exchanged for healthcare at a network of connected clinics. PharmAccess' ambition is to connect at least 25 million people to care through mobile health wallets by 2025.

In realizing its ambition, PharmAccess work closely with leading local and international funding and implementing partners. With over 60 percent of staff based in offices in Nigeria, Ghana, Tanzania and Kenya, we are firmly rooted in Africa. Our specific approach has attracted considerable international attention, including a G20 prize for innovative financing presented by President Obama, the National Postcode Lottery's prestigious "Droomfonds", and two Financial Times/IFC awards. PharmAccess Group comprises of sister organizations PharmAccess Foundation, Medical Credit Fund and SafeCare and is closely linked to the Joep Lange Institute, the Amsterdam Institute for Global Health and Development and the Amsterdam Health Technology Institute. The organization employs approximately 230 FTE, working in offices in the Netherlands, Kenya, Tanzania, Nigeria and Ghana.

The Position

If you are interested in working at the forefront of digital health and development, in a dynamic international, multidisciplinary environment, and you like turning complex ideas into concrete, appealing written propositions, PharmAccess may be the place for you. We are currently recruiting a Grant Development Officer to strengthen the Resource Mobilization team. The team consists of five ambitious colleagues that are tasked to mobilize resources and build strategic partnerships for realizing its ambition. We focus on strengthening existing partnerships and building new partnerships, with institutional donors as well as with private sector funders.

As Grant Development Officer, you identify funding opportunities and work in flexible teams to turn them into first-class proposals. You will support the team with identification of funding opportunities, preparing and organizing meetings and workshops with prospects, developing pitches and writing grant applications. Once a contract has been signed, you will also develop donor reports and presentations and provide regular feedback on the implementation of the projects. In this position, you will work closely with the Director Partnerships and the various business lines of the organization, as well as with the colleagues from the African offices and the communications and advocacy teams. You will report to the Head of Business Development.

Key tasks include:

- Researching funding market for digital health opportunities
- Working in flexible (inter)national teams on developing program concepts
- Developing pitches and write funding proposals
- Organizing, preparing and participating in partner interactions, e.g. meetings, workshops, symposia
- Managing process of proposal development up to submission: preparing for and writing proposals (PPT, Word), preparing budgets, collecting input, processing feedback, completion and submission

Qualifications & Requirements

- Relevant Master's degree- (health) economics, business, public health, international relations
- At least 5 years of relevant working experience including in proposal writing, fundraising
- Ability to turn complex concepts into understandable, appealing texts; experience in editing, stylistic editing, and copy editing
- Excellent verbal and written English communication skills; strong PowerPoint skills
- Analytical, conceptual thinker
- Flexible, pro-active, can-do mentality
- Operates strategically and diplomatically in a complex setting with various stakeholders
- Willing to travel internationally

PharmAccess offers

PharmAccess offers an excellent job opportunity in a dynamic international environment with solid working conditions and a branch conform salary. The position of Grant Development Officer is a fulltime position for an initial period of one year with the intention to extend the contract. PharmAccess has a fulltime workweek of 40 hours, a collective pension scheme and a collective health insurance. We offer 25 vacation days a year based on a fulltime employment agreement.

How to apply

Interested candidates can apply by filling out the application form on our recruitment page: <http://webapp.pharmaccess.org/hrdoc>. The deadline for application for this position is 13 May 2018. For more information, contact our HR Manager Vincent Telling by mail: v.telling@pharmaccess.org, phone: +31(0)202103920 or see www.pharmaccess.org.