

Healthcare Management Programme:

Whether you are running your own practice or managing others in a hospital, clinic, pharmacy or healthcare delivery organization, you must be able to effectively lead the people around you, understand the financial landscape, create budgets and navigate the regulatory environment. This certificate program aims to provide professional in the healthcare industry with the basic knowledge and skills needed to manage people, processes and programs efficiently.

Dates: July 2018.

Lecturers: Clare Omatseye, the Managing Director of JNC International Limited (JNCI), Fola Laoye, the Director for West Africa Investments at the Investmend Funds for Health Africa (IFHA), Sierd Hoekstra from AMPC, Dr. Olamide Okulaja, the Director of Advocacy and Communications at PharmAccess and many more. Click here to learn more.

Mode of delivery: The course is delivered through online modules as well as 3-4 days in class each month for a period of 4 months. Click here to learn more.

Results: 41 students have partaken in our course.

Contact information: contact the EDC's Program Coordinator Helen Anukam, on 0817 458 3180 or hanukam@pau.edu.ng.

“Quite an enjoyable class! In my opinion, HMP1 was a very successful program. Thankful to EDC, PharmAccess and all the well-suited facilitators. My colleagues and I intend to keep in touch leveraging on our combined network.” - Dr. Michael Wale Adeosun from Anchor HMO International